bracelets

As creator of the Circle of Hope Bracelet, Fran Lefrak-Brown saw her bracelets as a symbol of life and a visible connection among women involved in the fight against cancer. All of our unique and beautiful bracelets are made and sold by volunteers. In its first six years, Circle of Hope Bracelets, a community service organization, donated more than $1 million to cancer research, education, treatment and care. In memory of Fran, we will continue the fight against cancer... with your support.
